

Certifications

ISO 9001:2008

Omni International is ISO 9001:2008 certified. Our Quality Management System meets ISO and AS standards and is emblematic of the ongoing manner in which we operate our business. Adherence to these standard ensures optimum efficiency and compliance with customers' requirements.

Electronics Reseller Association International (ERA)

ERA is an affiliation of electronics distributors networking together to safeguard each other against fraud and unscrupulous business practices. We subject ourselves to the high standards of this international organization and maintain an impeccable member status since inception.

Omni is a member of several select associations that provide technical and general industry information essential to our operations.